

Frontend Developer (m/f/d)

full remote possible

COMA VALENCIA S.L. – DIGITAL MARKETING

Your codes breathe life into our ideas. You make pixels dance and users reach their goals. Your problem-solving enthusiasm knocks down even the strongest bug.

And decisions? You make them quickly and confidently. Surrounded by a team of specialists, you're at your best - and you're extremely fond of clean codes and the latest tech stack.

Do you recognize yourself? Then work with us as a Frontend Developer (f/m/d) on websites and web apps that inspire people. In a team. In Valencia, Munich (Germany), or remotely.

YOUR TASKS

- You implement sophisticated user interfaces - for websites and web applications of our national and international customers.
- Frontend standards and creative problem solving with new technologies? You can do both.
- You are the interface between design, development, and customer. And you love teamwork, feedback and sharing experiences.
- Your code reviews are systematic, thoroughly and move our development team and our customers forward. Quality rules!

WHOM WE'RE LOOKING FOR

- You write clean, performant and sustainable code.
- Questioning, consulting, taking responsibility: That's your thing.
- Web development with new tools and technologies makes you smile.
- Your sense of UI/UX design is spot-on, your eye for animation is convincing.
- You have good English skills.
- You bring the following technology stack:
 - Very good knowledge of JavaScript and ES6.
 - Very good knowledge of CSS3, Sass and PostCSS.
 - Very good knowledge of HTML5.
 - Experience with at least one of these frameworks: React, Angular, Vue.js.
 - If possible, experience with Tailwind CSS.
 - Very good knowledge with git and Gitflow.
 - Not afraid of CMS connectivity: TYPO3 / Statamic / WordPress.
 - Experience with build automation (node.js, gulp, webpack) and deployment.
 - Understanding of IT security (OWASP).
 - Experienced with design systems and modular construction of frontends (Photoshop/Figma to code).
 - Feeling for performance and usability.

Well, want to start directly with us?

THAT'S WHAT WE OFFER

- A dynamic agency environment with versatile, well-known clients and exciting projects.
- You will work in an interdisciplinary and international team (daily cooperation with our German headquarter in Munich)
- Familiar working atmosphere with motivated and friendly colleagues.
- Work-life party: Look forward to flexible working hours instead of constant overtime.
- Home office is normal for us, office too. Just get the best out of it.
- Attractive conditions and diverse career development opportunities await you.
- We offer you flexible working hours in a flat hierarchy and short decision-making paths.
- Remote working is possible.
